Wycombe Museum and our volunteers

Volunteers are a vital and valued part of the Wycombe Museum family. We value every skill that people bring and every minute that people give to us, and endeavour to have every volunteer feel appreciated and enjoy the time they spend helping us. We strive to have a relationship with our volunteers based on mutual respect and understanding.

What is involved?

We are looking for innovative ways to raise money to keep our doors open and help the Museum reach its potential. As a fundraising volunteer, you would be a vital part of this process and key to keeping the Museum at its best for visitors and the Wycombe community.

Some things you might be doing...

- Finding and researching new ways for the Museum to raise money
- Helping create awareness of the Museum and our friends membership
- Helping plan fundraising events
- Helping to prepare funding bids
- Arranging street collections
- Building relationships with local businesses
- Assisting with fundraising projects

Who would be supporting me?

Volunteer Manager, would be your main point of contact. Help on the project will come from the member of staff leading that fundraising activity.

On the day, the Duty Manager will be on hand to help and support you.

What is Wycombe Museum looking for?

We are looking for a creative, friendly and enthusiastic person who is happy to get stuck in, learn new skills and adhere to Museum policy.

You will be chatting with lots of different people, so we are looking for someone who is happy to chat to people of all ages and all backgrounds, helping to make them feel welcome and comfortable during their visit. We would like volunteers to wear something smart-casual, except for some activities where you will want to be comfy and warm instead (for example when distributing flyers).

What skills and qualifications do I need?

All you need is enthusiasm, a passion for fundraising and a willingness to learn- you will have some help learning everything else. An interest in Wycombe History is a bonus! If you do have any experience with fundraising- please do let us know.
